

I vehemently oppose any changes to Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. We have enjoyed the last year or so of not running to the phone to get a sales pitch for something that we will never have any interest in purchasing. At our house, if a company calls us unsolicited at home, we will NEVER deal with that company!

Thank you, Bill Aseltine